♥ About Henry

11/21 Henry is currently in Foster recovering from his neuter. He is available for adoption with one of our approved applicants, preferably in the Boise area. From his foster-“A younger and active couple sounds really good for him! I feel very safe and confident with him around kids. The biggest thing right off the bat is that he’s going to need time, attention, and training - he’s had a couple of potty accidents in the house (but that seems like just marking) and counter surfing. But already he’s responded so well and wants to please. I just don’t think he’s had much time inside! He’s not a barker. But he does bark when he’s needy. For…
